

Ethics – Q&A Session

---

This presentation will highlight current and relevant ethics issues and is designed – predominantly – to be a question and answer session with employees. Attendees should bring ethics questions to the presentation for discussion. For a useful summary of most ethics statutes and regulations, see the Departmental Ethics Office's webpage at: <http://www.doi.gov/ethics/index.cfm>

Ken Belongia

---

Ken is an Ethics Counselor with the United States Geological Survey in Reston, Virginia. He retired in 2004 from active duty as a judge advocate with the United States Air Force after serving for 27 years. His assignments included leading the largest legal office in the Air Force at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas and service as the Chief of the Professional Development Division for The Judge Advocate General's Department at the Pentagon where he was responsible for the recruitment, accession, education and training, manpower management, assignments and general professional development of all active duty Air Force judge advocates. Ken holds a Juris Doctor degree from Arizona State University and a Master of Laws degree in Government Procurement Law from The George Washington University. He is licensed to practice in the State of Arizona and in the District of Columbia and has been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court.